

What should you do in this situation? Please describe in detail.

In this situation, the car is approaching a crosswalk with pedestrians crossing the street. The driver should come to a complete stop at the crosswalk to allow the pedestrians to safely cross the road. This is a legal requirement and a responsible action to ensure the safety of pedestrians.

What else are you pay attention to?

In addition to stopping for pedestrians, the driver should also be aware of the surroundings, such as the presence of some vehicles, and any potential hazards. By being attentive to the environment and the actions of other road users, they can navigate the intersection safely and efficiently.

When will you go?

As the pedestrians are crossing the road, it indicates that it is safe to proceed.
